ENDEAVORS TO INTIMIDATE A JUROR

DEVOTEES OF POPPY JUICE ARE GLOOMY

PIPE DREAMS MAY SOON BE A THING OF THE PAST IN CHINATOWN.

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Gloom pervades the smoke-dimmed opium joints in the Chinese quarter as the ever-changing dreams of the smokers are tinged with bitterness because of the ruling received by Collector of Port Stratton today instructing him not to allow the million dollars worth of the drug in the government warehouses to be taken away after April 1. Importers had rushed in shipments to avoid the regulation prohibiting the further shipments after April 1, but the new regulation will prevent them getting possession of the opium already here. Government officials also assert that a careful reading of the pure food law will permit the destruction of the opium which has already passed the custom house.

HARRIMAN WANTS RAILROADS UNDER ONE MANAGEMENT

DENVER, March 30.—If Harriman could have his way all the railroads in the country would be put under one management according to a statement made by the railway magnate here today. He would begin the immediate expenditure of $300,000,000 in the physical and financial improvement of the weaker roads. He believes such a plan would be best for the people, shippers, owners of railway stocks and the government.

Denies Engaging Juror and Tries to Prove Alibi—May Be Tried Again On a Charge of Perjury.

(Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—William D. Harrington, a saloonkeeper, was found guilty of having improperly addressed Charles K. Blender, a juror temporarily passed in the Calhoun case, and was sentenced today to spend five days in the county jail for contempt of court. The juror is one of six subject to a peremptory challenge tomorrow. At that same hour in Judge Murasky's court, evidence will be submitted in an attempt to prove that Assistant District Attorney Frank J. Hanley and the officers working under his directions violated an order of the court by persisting in the search of the railroad offices last Sunday. It is also probable that William M. Abbot, Luther Brown, James M. Handion, and six other defendants arrested at the instance of Detective W. J. Burns, will be arraigned on charges of receiving stolen goods and grand larceny.

In the contempt proceedings Harrington, who was accused of asking the juror if he were going to hang Calhoun, denied ever having seen Blender before, and said his wife and bartender had testified that he was at home when the statement was said to have been made. Judge Lawlor nevertheless adjudged him guilty and in closing the case intimated that Harrington's testimony might be investigated by the district attorney in view of prosecuting another charge.

TROOPS CAPTURE WILY INDIAN CHIEF

Crazy Snake is Taken Into Custody by Militia—It is Now Thought That Disturbances Are Over.

(By Associated Press.)
HENRIETTA (Okla.), March 30.—Crazy Snake, chief of the Creek tribe of Indians, who have been the cause of the disturbance of the past few days, was captured by the troops late tonight.

He is likened in intelligent to Sitting Bull, and has been the chief cause to the disturbance in which two deputies and one Creek negro have been killed. Now that his capture has been effected, it is thought the rest of the renegades will disperse and return to their former homes, where they will be content to settle down. The militia and deputies scoured the river bottoms in every direction throughout the day and the early part of the evening in search of the wily chief who has been evading capture since the outbreak of the hostilities. He will be turned over to the government for punishment.

SHARKEY IS DESIROUS OF TACKLING JOHNSON

(By Associated Press.)
BOSTON, March 30.—In a public announcement made from the ring in the Armory Athletic association tonight Tom Sharkey stated if Jim Jeffries would not challenge Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight champion, "within three months, he would do so himself. He said: 'I have not had on a glove for five years, but I am not an old man. I don't think much of the heavyweights of today. Give me three months' training and I could get in condition to give any man on earth a go for his money.'
